

Year 7 Semi Formal Learning Journey

In Year 7 Semi-Formal Humanities, students experience a broad curriculum that builds their understanding of place, belief, and the past. They develop geographical awareness, explore different world religions, and begin to think like historians through engaging, practical, and meaningful learning.

